Description of Practice

During the past 5 years, Kay has worked as an independent contractor at Ruyle & Associates a holistic behavioral health practice located in Muskegon. With the owner of the practice, Dr. Roberta Ruyle, Kay co-developed a process of bio/energetic, psycho/spiritual treatment called Integral Practice Therapy (IPT). Kay is offering training in the IPT process for psychotherapists throughout Michigan. Kay will also be exploring her interests in quantum healing, alternative realities, and past, future, and simultaneous lifetimes.

Enhancing the connection to the animal kingdom will also be a focus of treatment for Kay in the coming year. Using her training in Healing Touch for Animals and Energy Medicine for Animals, Kay will be offering private sessions to assist pets and their human companions in balancing their physical beings, addressing behavioral challenges and connecting more deeply on the emotional and spiritual levels. She is also teaching Energy Medicine for Small Animals classes and expanding her animal practice to include end-of-life sessions and hospice facilities. Offer your pet the gift of balance today.

Description of Practice

Roberta works with individuals who are ready to journey into areas of their lives that may be impacting their personal and health potentials. She creates a well-grounded environment for clients to safely explore the uncharted territories in their spiritual, emotional, and physical health. Visualization techniques are used to help the client become an observer to their own life experiences to see first hand how to effect the change they desire. Roberta utilizes energy therapy techniques to work on the client's physical issues. Clients are seen in person or sessions can be done long distance via telephone.

Roberta sees clients at the EnergyTouch Center, 120 Ionia, SW, Grand Rapids, and at WomanCare-Healing Space, Palatine, IL. She is also the Director of Curriculum Development and an Instructor at the EnergyTouch® School of Advanced Healing located in Grand Rapids. - Occupational Therapist - Registered
- Doctorate of Acupuncture (Foreign Training)
- Healing Touch Practitioner
- Certified Auriculotherapy
- Preparing for Cranial Sacral Certification
- Certified Clinical Aromatherapy Practitioner

Description of Practice

Your experience may include one or more of the following approaches:
Healing Touch: energy directed intervention that effects changes within the human energy system
Auriculotherapy: examination of the outer ear that can effectively treat more than 200 conditions
Acupuncture: to disperse blockages and mobilize the body's natural immune response- the number of needles may vary according to the problem being treated. The needles are very thin, sterile, and single use, usually left in approximately 20-30 minutes in a stress-free environment
Craniosacrotherapy: a gentle hands-on method of releasing restrictions around the brain and spinal cord so your body can self-correct and free itself of pain and other health conditions
Aromatherapy: the use of healing properties and chemistry of plants in an essential oil blend usually applied on the skin using a patented manual massage "m" technique

Description of Practice

I assist clients to better their lives by healing relationships, clearing addictions, and doing soul retrieval. I remove blocks in your physical, mental, emotional and spiritual bodies which results in progression in your life and changes in your environment. This occurs through conversations about your issues and energy work. This work is done in a calm, relaxed space of my home. Each client is treated as the precious individuals that they are and each individual is unique. I will answer all questions asked about this life and/or previous lives and relationships.

Description of Practice

My specialization is instruction. I believe that information of how to use the energy system to increase health should be available to both practitioners and "regular" people. I teach introductory classes to further the spread of energy medicine to the public.

My private practice includes table work to balance and clear the energy system using Healing Touch, Energetic Healing, Spirit Release, Quantum Healing, Reiki, Tuning Forks, crystals, oils and Self Care instruction/homework for clients. I have become a snow bird and am spending the school year in the Knoxville Tennessee area.
