
Educational Programs and Networking Opportunities

Educational and social programs sponsored by WMH will be listed on the web site and in the quarterly newsletter.

Members offering educational programs independent of WMH sponsorship can also post program information on the WMH Web site – Calendar of Events by contacting the web site at info@westmichiganhealersinc.org. You are encouraged to contact members using the information provided in the Membership Directory, and to connect with other practitioners for networking, referral, and to share information about new programs or services you are offering.

Community Outreach

Members of West Michigan Healers have been very active in the community volunteering at many different venues. If you are interested in opportunities to volunteer working with people or animals, check the web site to obtain more information on how you can become involved.

Board Of Directors Meetings

Board meetings are held the first week of most months. Any member is welcome to attend a meeting to discuss ideas or concerns. If you are interested in becoming involved on the Board or any of the Board committees, contact the web site to get more information.

Explanation of Member Benefits

WMH Membership Directory

All members of West Michigan Healers, Inc., will be published in the WMH Membership Directory. The information in the Membership Directory is intended for use between members only. The personal and professional information obtained from your Membership Application/Renewal will be published in the Directory and mailed by September each year.

Community Resource Directory

As a member at the Practitioner Level, you will also be published in the WMH Community Resource Directory. Each member will receive one copy of this Directory – additional copies will be available at a reasonable cost if the member wishes to make the Directory available to their clientele. Information from the Public Release Form will published in this directory.

WMH Newsletter

The WMH newsletter will provide members with updates from the Board of Directors, information on new members, schedule of social and educational events sponsored by WMH, and listing of volunteer opportunities with contact information.

WMH Web Site

As a member at the Practitioner Level, members will be published on the WMH Web Site in the section entitled "PROFILES". A Public Release Form will be provided to members at this level to obtain specific information for release to the public. Free links to your personal or professional web site are also available. Check out the WMH web site at

Annual Dinner & Meeting of the Membership

All members, and guests, are invited to attend the Annual Dinner & Meeting of the Membership which is held during the first week of June every year. (The cost for dinner is $10.00 per person.)

This will be a wonderful chance to meet other holistic and alternative practitioners from the West Michigan area. A promotional table is set up to display business cards, brochures, and other promotional materials to share with the membership. After dinner, members and guests are encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting of the WMH Membership. At this meeting, time will be provided for members to introduce themselves and share information if they wish. Members will also elect Directors for the Board, get updates from Board committees, and discuss projects and events planned for the new year. Attendees will also have an opportunity to make donations in support of WMH Scholarship Fund and sponsorship of special events.
